

Strike out all after the word "precinct," in the last line but two, and insert the following:

"But no such convention shall be assembled by proclamation of the Governor, until the returns of the judges of election shall show that the elections throughout the State have been conducted without such military interference as to render the election void according to the provisions of this section."

The question being on the adoption of the amendment to the amendment,

Mr. Dent demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called, and appeared as follow :
