

told me I was objected to, and could not vote, I asked him why. He said, "If you swear, you can vote." I told him I would not do that, and turned off, because they all knew me and knew how I stood as well as themselves.

I intended to vote for Long for Register, and Dr. Dashiell for Clerk. I intended to vote for Creswell for Congress. I told them before the election there were not enough names on both tickets for me to make out my ticket by. My ticket was on white paper.

Ques.—Did you have any conversation with Provost Marshal Collier on the day of election, or immediately preceding it?

Ans. I do not know that I said any thing to him before the election, but after I offered to vote, Collier said it was strange that I should be objected to. I then got Collier, who knew I was going to vote for Creswell, to put his name on the back of the ticket, I intended to vote to identify it. But I did not vote. I got displeased, and put the ticket in my pocket.

Ques.—Do you live in Salisbury?

Ans. I did at that time.

Ques.—Did you see Judge Pinto and others brought there that day?

Ans.—I did, and spoke to them.

Ques.—Who brought them there?

Ans. There were soldiers with them. I do not know who brought them.

Ques.—What time of day did you offer to vote?

Ans.—I think it was about 12 o'clock; it was after the middle of the day.

Ques.—Were the Judges carried away from Salisbury at once, or did they remain there all night?

Ans.—I think they were carried out to camp.

Ques.—Did you hear the Judges say anything about the Governor's or Schenck's Proclamation?

Ans.—I do not remember. I asked the Chief Judge, Mr. White, how he could act as he did after taking the oath which he did as Judge. He replied that he had taken a different oath this time from the one which he usually took as Judge.

Ques.—What was the conversation about the Governor's Proclamation?
