

Ans.—It had been very small, but would have been larger this year if there had been no soldiers there.

Ques.—Did you see Captain McIntire and Captain Overton on the day of election, and did they vote?

Ans.—Yes sir; I saw Capt. McIntire at the polls, he did not vote. I also saw Capt. Overton, and asked him if he had voted. He said he had not. I said are you not going to vote, and he told me that he wanted to vote for Crisfield, but if he could not vote without taking the oath, that he would not vote at all. We staid until after sunset, and we walked home together. He had sworn the Judges in the morning—being a Justice of the Peace for that district.

Ques.—You named two persons that told you they would not go to the polls?

Ans.—Yes sir.

Ques.—Do you know of any others who would have voted for Woolford and J. J. Dashiell, who did not go to the polls in consequence of the apprehension of military violence?

Ans.—I know of no others who said so on the day of election, except the two that I have named.

Ques.—Do you know whether these rumors extended through the district generally?

Ans.—I think they did. There were several persons who voted in the evening, that had been there before and left, and came back and voted after I got there. I was the second man who voted the Democratic ticket that day.

Ques.—Do you know all the persons in that district?

Ans.—Yes, sir.

Ques.—How many persons of the name of Bloodsworth live there?

Ans.—Only four—John Robert, Littleton, Robert and Capt. Risdon Bloodsworth. John Robert Bloodsworth and Captain Risdon Bloodsworth took the oath and voted.

Ques.—Were you at Princess Anne the Tuesday before the election?

Ans.—No, sir. I was there the Tuesday week before the election. I had word sent to me that morning, that if I should go to the polls I should be arrested.

Ques.—Who gave this information?

Ans.—It was sent to my wife the evening before.
