

Ques.—Do you remember how many Democratic votes were taken that day?

Ans.—Thirty-four.

Ques.—Do you know how many were excluded?

Ans.—There were some four or five. Dr. Tull told me he did not vote. Mr. Reynolds told me that he did not vote.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

Ques.—They did not tell you that they had offered to vote, and were rejected?

Ans.—Mr. Reynolds told me that he had offered to vote. Dr. Tull told me that he did not offer to vote.

Ques.—At what hour did you reach the polls?

Ans.—It was about 2 P. M.

Ques.—What was the name of the Mr. Fountain whom you mentioned?

Ans.—John Fountain.

Ques.—What has been the Democratic vote for that precinct since 1860?

Ans.—It was between 30 and 40. I think the highest vote ever polled was 49; that was previous to 1860.

In June, 1861, at the special election for Congressman it was 31.

Nathaniel Dickson, Jr.'s testimony—

Ques.—In what district of Somerset county do you reside?

Ans.—In Princess Anne district.

Ques.—Will you state whether there were or not, prior to the election of 1863, rumors that the military would be sent down there to control the election?

Ans.—Yes, sir, I believe it was generally thought among the people that there would be military interference at the time of the election.

Question.—What time was the Democratic ticket offered in that county for that election?

Ans.—So far as my knowledge is concerned about it, it was the Sunday previous to the election.

Ques.—Why had not that been done before?

Ans.—Mr. Collier, the Provost Marshal, had said that they should not run any ticket. I know that, for I had heard him
