

Ques.—Did the Provost Marshal state any particular reason why, if you were on the ticket, he would arrest you?

Ans.—No, sir; there was no more objection to me than to the others.

Isaac K. Wright's Testimony.

Ques.—Were you a voter in Somerset county, at the last election, and if so, in what district?

Ans.—I was, sir, in the Barren Creek district.

Ques.—During what hours were you at the polls?

Ans.—I was there about the time the polls opened, and remained there and about until they closed.

Ques.—Were votes objected to, and by whom, and what was required of them?

Ans.—Joseph Wright objected to voters.

Ques.—Was any Union voter objected to?

Ans.—Not to my knowledge.

Ques.—Is Mr. Wright well acquainted with all the voters?

Ans.—Yes, sir; he has lived in the district ever since I can remember, and I am going on my forty-second year.

Ques.—Where was he during the day of election?

Ans.—He was in the poll room.

Ques.—You observed him during the day.

Ans.—Whenever I was in the poll room, I saw him.

Ques.—Who were objected to and who were not objected to?

Ans.—Those who were objected to were voting the Democratic ticket. They were Democrats. I did not see their ticket or examine it, but I knew them to be Democrats.

Ques.—Will you mention any that you saw objected to and turned down?

Ans.—I saw John Wright, the brother of Joseph Wright; when he came up to vote, Joseph Wright objected to his vote upon the grounds of disloyalty, and the Judges turned him down.

Ques.—Did they ask him to take the oath?

Ans.—I do not know.

Ques.—Did he vote?

Ans.—No, sir. They did not take his vote?
