

Ques.—How would he have voted?

Ans.—He was a candidate on the Democrat ticket for Overseer of Roads. Joseph Wright objected to Wm. J. Bounds; Josephus Venables, Elijah Hatton, and others told me that they were objected to.

Ques.—At what hour of the day was the first one objected to that you saw?

Ans.—It was not more than 10 o'clock. Joseph Wright objected to John Wright at that hour. I think Mr. Bounds was the next one, not long after that.

Ques.—When was the last in the day that you saw objected to?

Ans.—My own was the last sometime in the afternoon.

Ques.—Joseph Wright was in the room, so far as you know, all the time?

Ans.—Yes, sir; I was about there all day.

Ques.—You stated that every man that you spoke of as being objected to was a Democrat?

Ans.—Yes, sir.

Ques.—Have you named all that you saw objected to?

Ans.—I have named them, so far as my recollection serves me.

Ques.—Were there any soldiers there on the day of the election?

Ans.—Yes, sir.

Ques.—Did they object or interfere with any one's vote?

Ans.—No, sir; in no shape or form that I saw.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

Ques.—Those persons whom you said were turned down, were challenged by Wright, your uncle?

Ans.—Yes, sir.

Ques.—They were required to take the oath?

Ans.—He challenged them upon the ground of disloyalty.

Ques.—What did the Judges say?

Ans.—To some they tendered the oath.

Ques.—Did they take it?

Ans.—No, sir; they refused to take it.
