

Ques.—You say there was only one disturbance during the day?

Ans.—Yes Sir; that was caused by a soldier, one of the Purnell Legion, who lived in the neighborhood, coming to vote.

Ques.—And the guard promptly suppressed it.

Ans.—Yes, Sir. I have been voting there twenty-five years.

Ques.—Did you ever see an election before where there was only one disturbance?

Ans.—I have often seen an election where there was no disturbance.

Ques.—Is it not something unusual for the polls to be open all day without a disturbance?

Ans.—A number of years ago, when liquor was sold at the polls, there would be disturbance, but now the liquor is kept a quarter of a mile off.

Ques.—What was the objection to your vote?

Ans.—Disloyalty. I asked the Judges if I was disloyal. They said they thought not.

Ques.—Did the officer stay by the window all day.

Ans.—He was stationed at the pound, which was some distance off. I saw him at the polls only once, to suppress this riot. I live right at the place of election—the polls were kept in my house.

DIRECT EXAMINATION RESUMED.

Ques.—Did you and Wright ever have any difficulty?

Ans.—We only differed politically.

Ques.—Did you hear Mr. Wright say how he voted?

Ans.—I did not hear him say on that day.

CROSS EXAMINATION RESUMED.

Ques.—Have you any doubt that he voted the yellow ticket?

Ans.—He did not vote the yellow ticket. There were only two yellow tickets voted at the place, and Mr. Wright did not vote either of them.

Levin L. Waters' testimony:

Ques.—Were you a voter in Somerset county at the last November election; if so, state in what district?
