The said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The Senate bill entitled, "An Act to repeal the 4th section of the 12th article of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to Banks ;"

Was taken up for consideration on its third reading.

Mr. Tyson offered the following amendment:

Strike out after the enacting clause and insert:

"That sections one and two of article twelve of the Code of Public General Laws entitled "Banks" be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows: The several banks of this State, now having authority to issue notes, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue twenty per cent. of their capital stock actually paid in, in notes of a less denomination than five dollars, but no note shall be issued of a less denomination than one dollar; and nothing herein shall be construed to enlarge the total amount of the notes to be issued by any bank, beyond what is now allowed by law.

2. No corporation of this State authorized to issue notes for circulation shall be subject to any forfeiture or penalty for not redeeming such notes in specie before the eleventh day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-six.

Section 2. And be it enacted, that sections three, four,
