

The Speaker having sealed the ballot-box, inscribed thereon:

HOUSE OF DELEGATES OF MARYLAND,
Annapolis, January 12, 1864.

Ballots for a State Treasurer and State Librarian. This box contains seventy-one ballots.

THOMAS H. KEMP,

Speaker of the House of Delegates of Md.

The ballot box was delivered to Messrs. Greene and Dent, tellers, appointed by the Speaker, who, having conveyed it to the Senate Chamber, returned and made the following

REPORT:

The tellers Messrs. Greene and Dent, on the part of the House of Delegates, conjointly with Messrs. Eichelberger and Briscoe, of the Senate, to count the ballots cast for State Treasurer and State Librarian, report that there were ninety-one ballots cast: of which Robert Fowler received seventy-one votes, and Sprigg Harwood received nineteen votes, for Treasurer of the State of Maryland, and there was one blank ballot for Treasurer; and H. P. Jordan received eighty votes, Edward S. Shipley received three votes, William Harwood received one vote, for State Librarian, and there were seven blank ballots cast for State Librarian.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. C. GREENE,

JOHN F. DENT,

GRAYSON EICHELBERGER,

JAMES T. BRISCOE.

Whereupon, it was announced, that Robert Fowler, having received a majority of the votes cast, is duly elected Treasurer of the State of Maryland, and that H. P. Jordan, having received a majority of the votes cast, is duly elected Librarian of the State of Maryland.

The Speaker announced the following committee on so much of the Governor's Message as relates to the call of a Constitutional Convention, in accordance with an order passed at the session of Friday: Messrs. Stockbridge, Jones, Trail, Tyson and Frazier.

The Speaker laid before the House the following report of the Comptroller of the Treasury:

The annexed claims of persons against the State of Maryland, for amounts erroneously paid into the Treasury, have been certified to by the Comptroller:

To Isaac Ryland, Late Collector of Taxes, Kent county, for 1854, certificate given December 12, 1862, $4.94
