Ridgaway,

So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Herbert submitted the following amendment:

Add at end of section 4, "Provided further, either party shall have the right of appeal from the award of the said commissioners to the Circuit Court;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Martin submitted the following amendment:

Insert the following as section 5:

Section 5. "And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, before proceeding to act in the premises, shall take an oath to execute the duties hereby imposed, faithfully, and without partiality or prejudice, according their skill and judgment, and shall give to said company and the parties interested, such notice as they may deem reasonable, not less than twenty days, of the time and place of their meeting, by advertisement, in one or more papers, published in Harford and Cecil counties, and also, by personal notice served on the said parties; and for their compensation they shall each be entitled to receive five dollars per diem, to be taxed as part of the costs against the company;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Martin submitted the following amendment:

Strike out the 6th section and insert the following as

"Sec. 6, And be it further enacted, that this Act shall not go into effect until assented to by the said company, at a general meeting of the stockholders, convened in pursuance of the charter;"

Which was adopted.
