

March Court 1735 158

Afterwards to wit the Twenty fifth day of January anno Domini Seventeen hundred and thirty four at London and at Somerset County and the said first Bill of Exchange is as follows Indorsed unto the said Charles Rogers was shown and the same Charles Rogers then and there was required to accept the said first bill of Exchange according to the use and custom of Merchants from all the time ago used and approved and made payment of the said Six pounds One Shilling and three pence Sterling unto the said Thomas Nevell according to the form and Effect of the Indorsement of the same bill [the said Charles Rogers before that time then being twenty three days Eight of the said first Bill of Exchange and the said Second and third Bills of Exchange of the same Tenor & Date or either of them, then or yett not being accepted or paid] but the same Charles Rogers the said first Bill of Exchange then or yett did not accept but the same first Bill of Exchange then and there did accept did refuse and the said Six pounds One Shilling and three pence Sterling in the said first bill of Exchange specified unto the same Thomas Nevell according to the Tenor of the Indorsement of the said Bill of Exchange hath not paid but that to do altogether did refuse by reason whereof the same first Bill of Exchange then and there according to the use and custom of Merchants in that part from all the time ago used and approved in due form in writing was protested for want of acceptance of the same first Bill of Exchange and payment of the said Six pounds One Shilling and three pence Sterling in the same first bill of Exchange specified of all which premises the said Thomas Nevell afterward to wit the

Day of in the year of our Lord God Seventeen hundred thirty and five at Somerset County and unto the said James Scott and Thomas Gray did give Notice by pretext of which premises the said Thomas Gray according to the use and custom of Merchants from the whole time ago as before used and approved became and now was chargeable to pay to the said Thomas Nevell the said Six pounds One Shilling and three pence Sterling in the said first Bill of Exchange mentioned with all the Lawfull Damages Costs Duties by the said Thomas Nevell suffered and Sustained for want of due acceptance of the said first bill of Exchange and by evasion of the non payment of the Contents thereof to the said Thomas Nevell or Order and thereupon the said Thomas Gray afterwards to wit the same day and Year Last mentioned at the place ago in Consideration of the premises upon himself did assume and to the same Thomas Nevell then and there faithfully did promise that to the said Thomas Gray the said Six pounds One Shilling and three pence Sterling with all Lawfull Costs Damages Interest by the said Thomas Nevell suffered and Sustained by evasion of the non acceptance of the said first bill of Exchange