

June Court 1736 215

William Whaley Late of Somerset County ^{and} being summoned to appear at this Court to answer his not burning of Tobacco according to act of assembly in such case made and provided &c. and forasmuch as it doth appear to the Court here that the said William Whaley had not burnt so much Tobacco as by Law he was obliged to burn. Wherefore it is considered by the Court here that the said William Whaley pay unto his Lordship the Lord Proprietary for and by Quasion of the premises Twenty Shillings Curr. money of Maryland & that he be taken &c.

For as as aforesaid Benjamin Legg had not burnt so much Tobacco as by Law he was obliged to burn but was willing to pay his fine for the same &c. Wherefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Benjamin Legg pay unto his Lordship the Lord Proprietary for his fine & for and by Quasion of the premises Twenty Shillings Curr. money of Maryland & that he be taken &c.

For as much as aforesaid John Evans of Baltimore hundred had not burnt so much Tobacco as by Law he was obliged to burn but was willing to pay his fine for the same &c. Wherefore it is considered by the Court here that the said John Evans pay unto his Lordship the Lord Proprietary for his fine for and by Quasion of the premises Twenty Shillings Curr. money of Maryland &c. & that he be taken &c.

For as much as aforesaid Richard Jefferson of Somerset County had not burnt so much Tobacco as by Law he was obliged to burn but was willing to pay his fine for the same &c. Wherefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Richard Jefferson pay unto his Lordship the Lord Proprietary for his fine for and by Quasion of the premises Twenty Shillings Curr. money of Maryland &c.

Francis Elliott of Somerset County Blacksmith Cometh unto Court in his proper person according to aforesaid Writ of attachment against him issued for not appearing at March Court last he being legally summoned ^{here to} to answer his not burning of Tobacco according to act of assembly in such case made & provided And forasmuch as the said Francis Elliott had nothing to Object that was material wherefore he had not burnt the Tobacco according to Law but was willing to pay his fine for the same &c. Wherefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Francis Elliott pay unto his Lordship James Martin Esq. for his fine for and by Quasion of the premises Twenty Shillings Curr. money of Maryland &c.

For as much as aforesaid James Smith Esq. had not burnt so much Tobacco as by Law he was obliged to burn but was willing to pay his fine for the same &c. Wherefore it is considered by the Court here that the said James Smith pay unto his Lordship the Lord Proprietary for his fine for and by Quasion of the premises One pound Eleven shillings and six pence Curr. money of Maryland &c.