

August Court 1736 254

all bail to the action ^{as} but for want thereof the said ^{John} Smith Jones is committed into the custody of the said Sheriff Here to remain &c. The said Sheriff present here in Court took charge of the said ^{John} Smith Jones accordingly &c. ~~Whereupon~~ The said ^{John} Smith Jones in custody as ^{as} pray leave to Impound here until next Court and he hath it and the same day is given to the ^{as} Whittington here also &c. At which said next Court to wit the fifteenth day of June and ^{and} one thousand seven hundred and thirty six came again as well the ^{as} Whittington King by his attorney ^{as} as the ^{as} ^{John} Smith Jones in his proper person in custody as ^{as} and whereupon the said ^{John} Smith Jones pray further leave thereof to Impound here until next Court and he hath it and the same day is given to the ^{as} Whittington here also &c.

At which said next Court to wit the Seventeenth day of August and ^{and} one thousand seven hundred and thirty six came again as well the ^{as} Whittington King ^{by his atty as} as the ^{as} ^{John} Smith Jones in custody as ^{as} in his proper person and because the ^{as} Whittington King did not declare in the plea ^{as} against the ^{as} ^{John} Smith Jones according to a certain rule of Court nor did not prosecute his writ ^{as} against the said ^{John} Smith Jones.

Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the ^{as} Whittington King Executor of the ^{will} same John ^{Smith} Jones nothing by his writ ^{as} but that he and his pledges of Exorcising are in mercy and thus the ^{as} name pledges &c. and that the ^{as} ^{John} Smith Jones go thereof without Day &c.
