Thomas Bartlett of Somerset County aged about fifty four years being Sworn as aforesaid deposes and saith that he hath several times been informed by Richard Nicholson mentioned in the deposition of the Reverend Mr Alex Adams above and accepted, and by the deponents father now dead, and by old William Caines now also dead that the first boulder of a tract of Land containing two hundred acres belonging to one Ridgely stood on the point mentioned and described in the deposition of the said Adams and that by the description given the deponent by the said several persons of the said Boulder he verily believes that the Shump mentioned in the said Reverend Mr Adams deposition is the Shump of said Tree
