Somerset County a^s within the Jurisdiction of this Court did John Britts his certain note in writing commonly called a promissary note with his proper hands thereto subscribed bearing date the day and year last mentioned which note the said John Britts to the said Ralph Corbin then and there did deliver and by the same note promised to pay to the said Ralph by the name of Ralph Corbin of the County of Accomack in Virginia or to his Order the sum of five pounds in Cash Currency of Virginia or the Value ~~of~~ Indian Corn at the rate of fifteen pence per bushell of the value of five pounds ten Shillings Current money of Maryland & one hand mill standing in Thomas Billings house, with Cullen Stones and all her appurtenances of the Value of two pounds fifteen Shillings Current money of Maryland in Convenient upon Accomack River upon demand after the date of the said note for value before that time received by reason whereof and by force of the Statute in that case made and provided the said John became chargeable to pay to the said Ralph or his Order the aforesaid five pounds Current money of Virginia and the hand mill Cullen stones and appurtenances ~~of~~ of the value a^s upon demand according to the tenor of that note and the said John being so thereof chargeable on Consideration thereof afterwards to wit the same day and year last mentioned at Somerset County a^s and within the Jurisdiction upon himself did assume and to the said Ralph then and there faithfully promise that he the said John the said five pounds Current money of Virginia and the said hand mill Cullen stones and appurtenances of the value a^s to the said Ralph when he should be afterwards thereof required would faithfully content and pay. and altho the said
