John Phillips & others petition

To the worshipful Justices of Somerset County now in Court sitting The humble petition of John Phillips John Denston & Isaac Coster humbly sheweth - - - That whereas Robert Harris of this County last August Court obtained an order for a load from his now dwelling house in Sparrahawkin to a certain plantation of his called Deep Branch which said road is very prejudicial to your petitioners & y<sup>e</sup>. main County road that leads from y<sup>e</sup>. said Harris dwelling house to y<sup>e</sup>. said plantation called Deep Branch is not above three quarters of a mile out of y<sup>e</sup>. said Harris way your petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Worships will please to grant an order to such person as you shall think fit to view y<sup>e</sup>. said road whereby your worships may be certified of the prejudice y<sup>e</sup>. said road will be to your petitioners and they as in duty bound shall ever pray &c. John Phillips, J<sup>r</sup>. Denston, Isaac Coster

The petition aforesaid being read and heard and fully understood and mature deliberation thereupon had.
Wherefore it is considered and ordered that Thomas Dixon & John Williams of Somerset County have go<sup>ne</sup> & view and inspect the road or path that the said Robert Harris had obtained an order for <sup>last</sup> Court and that they the said Thomas Dixon and John Williams make their report immediately to this Court, now here sitting at Dorchester, and afterwards in the same Court came the said Thomas Dixon and John Williams the two have appointed to inspect the road or path aforesaid and upon making their report to the Court here the same Court did order that the said Robert Harris take no benefit of the aforesaid road or path that he had obtained an order for last Court, But that Randale Smullin and Joseph Ward both of Parsham North Lay out and direct a bridle path for the said Robert Harris from his dwelling plantation in Sparrahawkin near to his upper plantation at the end of the said Parsham North, the said path to be laid out and directed by the said Randale Smullin and Joseph Ward the most convenient for the said Robert Harris; but of the least of prejudice to any person or persons whatsoever and the said path so be laid out and directed as aforesaid to be kept and repaired at the expense of the said Robert Harris &c.

Edward Vigors
pet.

To the worshipful Justices of Somerset County now in Court sitting the humble petition of Edward Vigors sheweth That your petitioner hath a tract of land lying upon the sea side called Unity he therefore humbly prays that your Worships will be pleased to appoint Commissioners to examine evidence in relation to the boundaries of the said land in order to perpetuate the same and your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

The petition aforesaid being read and heard and fully understood and mature deliberation thereupon had Wherefore it is considered by the Justices here that a Commission Issue to the aforesaid Edward Vigors as by the petition aforesaid is said and that James Martin Edward Rownd James Rownd
