Sept. 1st 1849

Filed and recorded Sept. 1st 1849, and certificate of Freedom issued as follows Maryland Kent County to wit

I, Joseph Redue, Clerk of Kent County Court, hereby certify to all whom it doth or may concern, that it appears by the records of Kent County aforesaid, that a certain Isaac Boyer of the said County by his certain deed of Manumission, bearing date on the eleventh day of January in the year Eighteen hundred and forty, did manumit, liberate, set free and discharge from slavery a mulatto woman named Emeline Boyer, now about thirty five years of age, I further certify that a mulatto woman now present (the bearer hereof) now called and known by the name of Emeline Boyer, aged about thirty five years, five feet, six and one quarter inches high, has proved by testimony which is satisfactory to me, that she is the identical person mentioned and described by the name of Emeline Boyer in the deed of manumission above referred to, and that
