

And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this act or the acts to which this is a supplement, shall be so construed as to give the right to the said corporation to issue any note, bill, certificate or check of any character whatever for circulation.

The said substitute was then read the second time as amended, and the question put—will the house adopt said substitute?

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put, on concurring in the report of the committee, and

Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill reported by Mr. Roberts, entitled, an act for the encouragement of agriculture and manufactures, and the amendments reported to said bill from the committee on agriculture.

Were taken up for consideration.

The amendments having been read the second time were assented to.

The said bill was then read the second time as amended, and the question put—shall the said bill pass?

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Simmons, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, an act to incorporate the Real Estate Bank of the State of Maryland.

On motion of Mr. Simmons, said bill was laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Wednesday next, 21st inst.

On motion of Mr. McKinnell, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, from the committee on internal improvement, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for the completion of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to the borough of York, in the State of Pennsylvania.

On motion of Mr. McKinnell, said bill was laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Tuesday next, 20th inst.

On motion of Mr. Carroll, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by Mr. McDaniel, from the committee on ways and means, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to invest the State's share of the Surplus Revenue of the United States, and for other purposes, passed at Dec. session, 1836, ch. 220;

On motion of Mr. Carroll, said bill was laid on the table and made the order of the day for Wednesday next the 22d inst.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Williams, entitled, an act to prevent unnecessary costs in cases of appeal from the High Court of Chancery to the Court of Appeals;

On motion of Mr. Williams, said bill was amended by adding at the end of the 1st section, the following:

“And the clerk or register of such court, shall transmit the same to the Court of Appeals, or if the said parties or their counsel, cannot agree in the making of such statement, then the court or chancellor