Beall

So the house refused to adopt said substitute.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the bill;

Mr. Blocher moved to amend said bill, by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following:

And be it enacted, that this act shall not take effect unless approved of by a majority of the voters in said election district No. 10, at the next election for delegates to the General Assembly.

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Hillen, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows,—
