

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and one, entitled, an act to establish Magistrates' courts in the several counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, together with all the supplements thereto, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to Cecil county.

Which was read;

On the question being put—will the house adopt said substitute?

It was determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put—shall the said bill pass?

Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill reported by Mr. Carroll, entitled, an act for the relief of Alexander Donoho, of Somerset county;

The bill reported by Mr. Eccleston, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled, an act to establish Magistrates' courts in the several counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction, so far as it relates to Dorchester county;—and

The bill reported by Mr. Boyle, of Talbot, entitled, an act to change the name of Anthony Christopher Columbus Americus Vespuicious Thompson, of Talbot county;

Were severally taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed.

On motion of Mr. Duke,

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning nine o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, March 21st, 1838.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday, with the addition of Mr. Huddleson, who has been confined by indisposition, but again appeared and resumed his seat.

On motion of Mr. Blocher, the rule of the house which requires the journal of proceedings of the preceeding day to be read, was suspended, and the reading of said journal was dispensed with.
