

missioners of Carroll county, to examine and audit the acts of Greenbury Shipley and Alexander Gillis, two of the commissioners appointed by the board of commissioners of Baltimore county, to survey, lay out and open a road from Dr. Thomas Beall Owings' mill, now in Carroll county, to Harne's Old Fields, in the same county, and upon finding any part or all of said accounts to be just and right, the said commissioners of Carroll county shall be authorised to levy on the assessable property of said county, such sum as may be necessary, and pay over the same to the parties claiming.

Which was read.

On the question being put—will the house adopt said substitute? It was determined in the negative.

Mr. Orrick then offered as a substitute for said bill, the following:

A bill, entitled, an act regulating claims against Baltimore county, for a certain road in Carroll county, commencing at Dr. Thomas Beale Owings' mill in Carroll county, to intersect the public road leading from Harne's Old Fields in Carroll county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the commissioners of Carroll county, and the commissioners of Baltimore county, shall each appoint a person well qualified and disinterested, as a referee, to examine into the amount claimed for laying out and constructing the road above mentioned; and if the said referees cannot agree in adjusting said claim satisfactorily, the commissioners of the respective counties, conjointly, shall appoint an umpire, whose decision shall be final, and a majority of the two boards, conjointly, shall constitute this power.

Which was read.

Mr. Lemmon moved to refer said bill and substitute to the consideration of the next General Assembly;

Determined in the negative.

The question was then put—will the house adopt the substitute?

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Shower,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:—
