

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, passed and sent to the senate

Mr. Sprigg, chairman of the committee on internal improvement, delivered the following report,

The committee on internal improvements, to whom was referred the memorials of sundry citizens of Montgomery county, praying that it may be made "obligatory on the Maryland Canal Company to locate and construct their canal by the way of Seneca and Patuxent rivers," &c. have had the same under consideration, and in conformity with an order of this house, have examined Messrs. Hughes, Fisk and Trimble, engineers, on oath—but inasmuch as the prayer of the memorialists has been mainly gratified by the subsequent adoption of a resolution directing a particular survey of those routes, your committee beg leave to report the testimony, and ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

M. C. SPRIGG, Ch'n.

Which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.
