

TUESDAY, March 27th, 1838.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday.

On motion of Mr. Carpinter, the rule of the house which requires the journal of proceedings of the preceding day to be read, was suspended, and the reading of said journal was dispensed with.

The several bills, resolutions and message, passed by the house on yesterday, were sent to the senate.

On motion of Mr. Blocher,

Ordered,* that the chief and assistant clerks of this house, be and they are hereby authorised and required to arrange in proper order, all the papers now in the committee room, and that the committee on claims allow them each one hundred dollars for such service.

Mr. Geyer, from the minority of the select committee, delivered the following report:

The minority of the committee to whom was referred the leave to enquire whether Carroll county was not entitled to a part of the public property in Frederick and Baltimore counties, ask leave to

REPORT:

That the people of Carroll county voluntarily surrendered any interest they may have had, in common with other citizens of Frederick and Baltimore counties, in their repeated petitions to have themselves separated from these two counties, and incorporated into a new county. These petitions were made in anticipation of the advantages to be derived, and which doubtless they have derived from this important change—and the idea of an indemnity or compensation, where no loss has been sustained, is not founded in any reasonable view of the subject.

J. W. GEYER.

HUGH ELY.

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Gallagher reported a bill, entitled, an act relating to the names of streets in the city of Baltimore;—and

Mr. Boon reported a bill, entitled, an act to build a bridge over the Deep Branch, between Thomas Burchenal's mill and Green borough, in Caroline county;

Which were severally read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Usilton, chairman of the select committee, made a favorable report upon the bill from the senate, entitled, an act to exempt from taxation, the Parsonage House of the Episcopal Church in Chestertown;

Which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Giles, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made a favorable report upon the bill from the senate, entitled, an act for the relief of the trustees under C. C. Harper's will;

Which was read the first time, and