

The said bill was then read the second time, passed with the proposed amendment, and returned to the senate.

The doorkeeper having returned, reported that in obedience to order he had notified the absent members that their attendance in the house was required.

The house then resumed the consideration of the motion of Mr. Alexander, to reconsider the vote of the house upon the bill, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for the completion of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to the Borough of York, in the State of Pennsylvania.

On the question being put—will the house reconsider their vote on said bill?

It was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Duke, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows,—

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Tuck, Speaker	Lemmon	Gallagher

So the house reconsidered their vote.

Mr. Townsend called for the previous question, that is—shall the main question be now put,

It was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Alexander, said bill was amended by adding at the end of the 3d section the following:

‘And the payments of interest required to be made by the said company shall continue to be made until the time appointed as
