So the resolutions were assented to and sent to the senate.

Mr. Kerr reported a bill, entitled, a further supplement to an act to provide for the public instruction of youth in primary schools in this State,

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, passed and sent to the senate.

Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee on ways and means made an unfavorable report upon the bill from the senate, entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, an act to invest the State's share of the surplus revenue of the United States, and for other purposes, passed at Dec. session 1836, ch. 220,

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, rejected, and the bill returned to the senate.
