

Mr. Alexander submitted the following message, which was read, assented to and sent to the senate:

By the House of Delegates,
29th March, 1838.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received a bill from your honorable body, entitled, "an act, entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, an act to invest the State's share of the surplus revenue of the United States, and for other purposes, passed at December session 1836, chapter 220." As the bill proposes to appropriate money in the Treasury we are compelled to reject it, at the same time we have considered the objects which you proposed to accomplish by its passage, and approving thereof, have originated and now send you a similar bill which we hope will receive your concurrence.

By order,

George G. Brewer, Clerk.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of Mary Manning, of Washington county;

Also, the bill, entitled, an act to increase the allowance to the sheriff of Washington county for keeping debtors in jail;

Also, the bill, entitled, an act directing the commissioners of the tax, of Carroll county, to publish annually a full statement of their receipts and disbursements;
