By the House of Delegates,
March 29, 1838—Thursday, 10 o'clock, P. M.
Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have concurred in the report of the committee of conference between the two houses, upon the amendment of the senate to the bill, entitled, an act for the better regulation of the Banking Institutions of this State, and herewith return the bill and amendments, with a request that your honorable body will reconsider and pass the same, as proposed by the committee.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, clerk.

On motion of Mr. Giles, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, an act to provide for the weighing of anthracite or hard coal, and for the measuring of bituminous coal in the State of Maryland, and to repeal the act of Assembly heretofore passed in relation to that subject—and the substitute offered therefor by Mr. Simmons, being a bill, entitled, an act supplementary to an act, to provide for the inspection and weight of anthracite or hard coal, or for the measurement of bituminous coal, passed Dec. session, 1838, ch 265;

On the question being put—will the house adopt the substitute?

It was determined in the negative.

The question then recurred upon the passage of the bill;

Resolved in the affirmative, and the bill sent to the senate.
