

By the Senate,

1838, March 29th, 12 P. M.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

With the utmost desire to concur in every proposition proceeding from your honorable body, we regret that the very protracted length of the session compels us to decline its further extension.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clerk.

Which was read.

Mr. Causin submitted the following resolution,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland, pay to Edward Thompson and Henry Webster, the sum of ten dollars each, for their services as extra committee clerks.

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, assented to and sent to the senate.

Mr. Orrick submitted the following resolution,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby authorised to pay to the Trustees of the Herford Academy, in Baltimore county, the amount due to the Garrison Forrest Academy in said county, on the 25th day of January, 1838.

Which was read the first and by a special order the second time, assented to and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate delivered the following message:

By the Senate,

March 29, 1838.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

When we sent to your honorable body the message declining to accede to the proposition to prolong the session of the Legislature, it was under the hope that the business of the session might be closed to night, but understanding that it will be impossible to do so, we propose with the consent of your honorable body, to prolong the session until to-morrow the 30th inst. and that the Governor be invited to attend in the Senate Chamber at 12 o'clock M. for the purpose of signing the laws.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, clerk.

Which was read.

Mr. Kerr submitted the following message, which was read, assented to and sent to the senate.

By the House of Delegates,

Friday morning, 2 o'clock, March 30, 1838.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message proposing to extend the session, and concur therein. We have appointed Messrs. Kerr and Hillen to wait on the Governor and request his attendance to sign and seal the laws.

By order,

George G. Brewer, clerk.
