So the leave was laid on the table.

Mr. Maulsby submitted the following order, which was twice read and adopted.

Ordered, That His Excellency the Governor, be requested to transmit to this house, copies of the demand by the Executive of Pennsylvania on the Executive of this State, for the surrender of Nathan S. Bemis, Jacob Forwood, Stephen Lewis and Edward Prigg, who had been indicted in York county for the arrest and bringing into Maryland, certain runaway slaves, contrary to the laws of that State, together with copies of the indictments, affidavits, and other documents accompanying such demand, and of all correspondence (if any) that may have taken place between the two Executives on the subject, and all other information in the possession of the Executive of Maryland on that subject.

Mr. Hopewell submitted the following message:

By the House of Delegates,
December 26, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the consent of your honorable body, to appoint a joint committee of the two houses to wait upon his Excellency, the Governor, and inform him that we are prepared to receive any communication he may be pleased to make. We have appointed Messrs.

, to join such gentlemen as may be named by your honorable body to perform this service.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, clerk,

Which was read.

The blanks in said message having been filled by the chair with the names of Messrs. Hopewell and Parker,

The said message was read the second time and assented to.

On motion of Mr. Maulsby,

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
