

Tide-water Canal Company, passed at December session 1825, chapter 340.

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

It was accordingly engrossed, and

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

Read the third time, by special order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate Union academy; was read the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Tidball,

The committee to which had been referred the memorials of a convention of Physicians, relative to the difficulties in the University of Maryland, and for the establishment of a college of Pharmacy, were enlarged, by adding thereto the names of Messrs. Cottman and Goldsborough.

The bill entitled, an act to prevent the sale of Foreign lottery tickets in this State, was read the second time, and the question put,

“Shall the bill be engrossed for a third reading?”

And it was determined in the negative.

Mr. Jones from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Hannah Moore academy in Baltimore county, reported that the committee were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendment,

Which was read and assented to:

Add as an additional section:

Section 4, And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall prejudice the rights of the heirs at law of the said Anne Neilson.

The bill was then read the second and by special order the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Kent from the committee on the militia, to which was referred the resolution requiring the armorer to deliver certain arms to captain Henry McKinnell, and

The resolution directing the armorer to deliver certain arms and accoutrements to captain Edward Wilkins of Kent county, reported favorably thereon.

They were severally read the second and by special order the third time, assented to and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Tidball from the committee on judicial proceedings, to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to prevent unnecessary costs in cases of appeal, reported that the committee were of opinion it ought not to pass.

It was read the second time.

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

Leave was granted to Messrs. Bowie, Cottman and Wright, to prepare and report a bill to be entitled, an act allowing a case to be reinstated in Baltimore county court.