The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock

---

WEDNESDAY, March 28, 1838.

The Senate met. Present the same Senators as on yesterday.

On motion of Mr. Beckett,

The reading of the proceedings of yesterday, was dispensed with.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following message,

By the House of Delegates,

March 27, 1838.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received the bill entitled, "an act for the better regulation of the Banking Institutions of this State," with the amendments adopted by your honorable body, and respectfully propose a committee of conference on that subject. We have appointed Messrs. Sprigg, Giles and Carroll, to meet such gentlemen as may be named on the part of the Senate.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, clk.

Also, a bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Mary Manning of Washington county,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

On motion of Mr. Tidball,

The bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to invest the States' share of the surplus revenue of the United States, passed at December session 1836, chapter 220, was read the third time by special order, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Purnell submitted the following message, which was read and adopted:

By the Senate,

March 28, 1838.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message informing us that you have received the bill entitled, "an act for the better regulation of the Banking
