

al of the levy court of Frederick county, in relation to a road in Carroll county, leading from Philip Nichodemus' mill, to William Jordan's farm, reported a bill entitled, an act in relation to a road authorised to be opened by an act passed at December session 1832, chapter 158, and its supplements,

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Schley from the committee to which was referred the memorial of the levy court of Frederick county, praying for the passage of an act requiring the commissioners of Carroll county to pay an equitable proportion of the current expenses of the last fiscal year, reported a bill entitled, an act to authorise and require the commissioners of the tax of Carroll county, to levy and pay over a certain sum of money,

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Schley from the committee on judicial proceedings, to which was referred the petition of John Armstrong, reported a bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to authorise John Armstrong of Baltimore county, to hold real estate, passed at December session 1828, chapter 48,

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Schley from the committee to which was referred the memorial of the levy court of Frederick county, in relation to a public road in Carroll county, leading from the village of Frizzlesburgh, to the Reisterstown road, near Keifer's Tavern, reported a bill entitled, an act relating to a road proposed to be opened from the village of Frizzlesburgh on the Taneytown road, thence to Messenger's mill, thence to St. Mary's church and thence to the Reisterstown Turnpike road, at or near Joseph Keifer's Tavern, situate in Carroll county, and distinguished among the road records of Frederick county, by No. 168 roads.

Which was read the first time.

The bill entitled, an act to confirm an act entitled, an act to amend the constitution and form of government of the State of Maryland, passed at a December session 1836, chapter 197, was announced by the President as entitled to a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Beckett,

The following order was read:

Whereas, an election for delegates to the General Assembly has been held in the different counties and cities of this State, since the act proposing amendments to the constitution and form of government was passed by the last General Assembly; and whereas, the expression of the popular will, in favor of and against the said projected amendments, is to be looked for and ascertained by the action of the immediate representatives of the people, who compose the present house of delegates—Therefore,

Ordered, That the bill about to be considered by the Senate, which proposes to confirm said act, be postponed until the 15th day of Feb-