

Negro Solomon.

Waryland Harford County Ct.

I hereby certify that in virtue of a manumission Executed by Josias W. Dallam, on the thirteenth day of March in the Year Seventeen hundred and Eighty Seven, and recorded the tenth day of April in the Year Seventeen hundred and Eighty Seven, in Liber S. L. G. N. 76 folio 77 to one of the Land Record books of Harford County Court, that Sunday negroes therein named were to be free at certain periods therein specified, and all the children that might descend from said negroes were also to be free when they should severally arrive to the age of twenty three Years I hereby further certify that Lemmon is one of the negroes so named in said manumission, and that it is sufficiently identified to me by the probat of Philip R. Dallam filed in my office, that the bearer hereof Negro Solomon a Yellow man, about the age of thirty two Years, about five feet, ten inches high has a Scar on his right hand back of the thumb something in the shape of the Letter D, and one or two other small Scars on the same hand, and a small Scar on the upper lip running immediately from nose to mouth, is the child of the aforesaid Negro Lemmon so named as aforesaid in said manumission and that he was entitled to his freedom when he arrived to the age of twenty three Years.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of said County Court this 12th day of September Eighteen hundred and twenty nine
