

Handwritten text at the top of the page, likely a letter or document header, including a date and recipient information.

Second block of handwritten text, continuing the message or providing additional details.

Third block of handwritten text, possibly containing a signature or a specific instruction.

October 9. 1812
Receipt for $5 in full
of D. M. ...

5. 23/11