

August Court ---- 1737 ---- 116.

And the afd William Whittington by Francis Allen his attorney Cometh and defendeth his face and Injury when he and prayeth Leave thereof to Impale hereuntil the third Tuesday of November then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the afd William Hook and Comfort his wife here also &c. — At which day here came againe as well the afd William Hook and Comfort his wife as the afd William Whittington by their attorneys aforesaid and whereupon the same William Whittington prayeth further Leave thereof to Impale hereuntil the third Tuesday of March then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the afd William Hook & Comfort his wife here also &c. —

At which day here came againe as well the afd W^m Hook and Comfort his wife as the afd William Whittington by their attorneys afd and whereupon the same W^m Whittington prayeth further Leave thereof to Impale here until the third Tuesday of June then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the afd — W^m Hook & Comfort his wife here also &c. —

At which day here came againe as well the afd William Hook and Comfort his wife as the afd William Whittington by their attorneys afd and — whereupon the same W^m Whittington prayeth further leave thereof to Impale here until the third Tuesday of August then next following and he hath it — and the same day is given to the afd William Hook and Comfort his wife here also &c. —

At which day here came againe the aforesaid William Hook and Comfort his wife by their attorney aforesaid and whereupon the same William and Comfort pray that the afd William Whittington to their Declaration afd may answer but the same Wille-Whittington altho' solemnly called cometh not nor vaith nothing in barr or preclusion of of the action afd of the afd William Hook and Comfort his wife by which the same William and and Comfort remaineth against the afd William Whittington thro' of undefeuded — for which reason the same William Hook and Comfort his wife their Damages by occasion of the Non performance of the promise and assumption afd against the afd William Whittington ought to recover but because it is not known unto the Justice of his Lordships County Court of Somerset how what Damages the same William Hook and Comfort his wife in that part hath sustained — Therefore it is Comanded the Sheriff of said County that by the Bath of Honour and Lawfull men of his County with ~~and~~ he diligently Enquire what Damages the same William Hook and Comfort his wife hath sustained as well by occasion of the Non performance of the — promise
