

November Court . . . 1737 . . . 166 the said Wrixham as before defends the force and Injury whenst. and says that the said Robert his action where upon he prays Judgment if the said Robert his action as^d against him to have and maintain oughtst. And the aforesaid Robert saith that by any thing by the said Wrixham in his plea as^d above alleged from having and maintaining his action as^d against him the said Wrixham to be barred ought not because he saith that he the said Wrixham on
