

November Court.... 1737 178 twenty five pounds nine shillings and seven pence Sterling in the said first bill of Exchange specified unto the said Thomas Nevett according to the form of the said first Bill of Exchange & the Indorsment thereupon as afo of all which said premises the said Thomas Nevett afterwards (to witt) the tenth day of May One thousand seven hundred and thirty Seven at Somerset County afo unto the said William Maclemmey did give notice by pretext of which premises the afo William Maclemmey by reason of his Indorsment upon the said first bill of Exchange as afo according to the Use and Custom of Merchants for the whole time afo as before used and approved became and was chargeable to pay the said Thomas Nevett the afo Twenty five pounds nine shillings and seven pence Sterling in the said first bill of Exchange mentioned with all the Lawfull damages Costs and Interest by the said Thomas Nevett suffered and sustained for want of due acceptance of the said first bill of Exchange and by reason of the nonpayment of the contents thereof to the said Thomas Nevett or order and thereupon the said William Maclemmey afterwards (to witt) the same day and year last mentioned at the place afo in Consideration of the premises upon himself did assume and to the said Thomas Nevett then and there faithfully promised that he the afo William Maclemmey the afo twenty five pounds nine shillings and seven pence Sterling with all Lawfull Costs damages and Interest by the said Thomas Nevett suffered and sustained by occasion of the non acceptance of the said first bill of Exchange and nonpayment of the contents of the same which amount unto four pounds seven shillings and seven pence Sterling whereof the said William Maclemmey the day year and place last mentioned had notice Nevertheless the said William Maclemmey his promise and assumption afo nothing regarding but minding and fraudulently intending the said Thomas Nevett in this part craftily and subtilly to deceive and defraud the afo twenty five pounds nine shillings and seven pence Sterling together with all Lawfull Costs damages and Interest afo which in the whole amount unto the sum of thirty pounds seventeen shillings and two pence Sterling or any part thereof to the afo Thomas Nevett hath not paid altho: to do the same the afo William Maclemmey (to witt) the same day and year last mentioned and afterwards wards at Somerset County afo by the afo Thomas Nevett he was required but