

March Court 1736 20

at Somerset County aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory had granted himself to be bound unto the aforesaid Daniel in the aforesaid sum of forty two pounds current money of Maryland to be paid unto the same Daniel when thereunto afterwards he should be required Nevertheless the aforesaid William Lewis altho' often required the aforesaid forty two pounds current money of Maryland unto the aforesaid Daniel hath not paid but that unto him hitherto pay altogether hath refused and still doth refuse to the damage of the same Daniel fifty pounds like money and thereof he bringeth suit & doth bring hereunto Court the writing obligatory aforesaid which the debt aforesaid in form aforesaid testifies the date whereof is the same day and year aforesaid

Bledges. &c. John Doe & R Roe

A Copy of the foregoing declaration was made and sent to be served on the aforesaid William Lewis in Custody of the Sheriff aforesaid Eight days before the third Tuesday of March then next following and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid

At which day before the Justices of his Lordships County Court of Somerset at dividing Creek came here again as well the aforesaid Daniel Carole by his attorney aforesaid as the said William Lewis in Custody of the Sheriff aforesaid in his proper person and the same Sheriff returned here that he had served the said William Lewis in his Custody aforesaid with a copy of the aforesaid Declaration Eight days before the instant third Tuesday of March as aforesaid he was required

Whereupon the same Daniel Carole prayeth that the aforesaid William to his Declaration aforesaid may answer upon which the same William hath day until Saturday the Last day of this term to him by the Justices of his Lordships County Court of Somerset here to answer unto the declaration aforesaid of the aforesaid Daniel, and it is said by the Court here that the said William have notice of the same rule, and afterwards in the same Court, came the said Sheriff to wit Joseph M^{rs} Foster Gent and said that he had given the said William Lewis, in his Custody aforesaid, notice of the aforesaid rule, and the said William so having notice of the rule aforesaid, so as aforesaid made herein Court, the said William nor any one for him, at or before Saturday the Last day of this term, so as before given to the said William, and the said day the same William being solemnly charged to answer the aforesaid rule nor with nothing with Barr or preclusion of the action aforesaid of the aforesaid Daniel by which the same Daniel remaineth against the aforesaid William those of undoubted

Therefore it is considered that the aforesaid Daniel Carole recover against the said Wm Lewis in Custody aforesaid his debt aforesaid and his damages aforesaid and the damages by reason of the detaining of the same debt to the said Daniel of his spent by the Court here adjudged to the aforesaid William in money ^{pounds of}

456