

And Whereupon the said Joseph by Charles Godborough his attorney saith that -- whereas the as^d. Alexander the thirteenth day of August seventeen hundred thirty and four at Somerset County as^d. by his certain writing obligatory had granted himself to be held and firmly bound unto the as^d. Joseph in the sum of ninely one pounds one shilling and six pence as^d. to be paid unto the as^d. Joseph when thereof afterwards he should be requir'd Nevertheless the as^d. Alexander altho' often required the as^d sum of money unto the as^d. Joseph hath not render'd but that unto the as^d. him neither to render altogether hath refused still doth refuse to the damage of the same Joseph ten pounds and one thousand pounds of tobacco and therefore he brings suit &c. and doth bring here into Court the writing obligatory as^d. with the debt as^d. in form as^d. doth testify the date whereof is the same day and year aforesaid --

Pledges &c. P. Doc. St. Roc

And the as^d. Alexander Fullerton by William Godborough his attorney comes and defends the force and Injury when &c. and saith that he cannot deny the execution as^d. of the as^d. Joseph Small's nor but that the writing obligatory as^d. is the deed of the same Alexander Fullerton nor but that he oweth the same Joseph Small the as^d. ninely one pound one shilling and six pence in manner and form as the as^d. Joseph Small above against him declared.

Therefore it is considered the as^d. Joseph Small recover against the as^d.
Alexander Fullerton his debt as^d. and his damages by occasion of the deten:tion of the same debt to:

257. pounds of tobacco to the same Joseph of his as^d. by the Court hereadjudged and the as^d. Alexander Fullerton in mercy &c. --
