

Levi Barrett and Rebecca Thomas, colored.

We estimate the annual value of this property at one hundred and ten dollars.

- No. 4. is a part of "Everitt" lot on Queen Street, improved by a small frame dwelling, with room below and room above stairs; in fair repair; occupied by Joseph Berry, colored. The Annual value thereof we estimate at forty dollars. $ 40.00
- No. 5. is a part "Everitt" lot, improved by a double frame house on Bridge Street, occupied as two dwellings, each containing one room below and one room above stairs. In bad repair. We estimate this property, at the annual value of fifty dollars. $ 50.00
This property is tenanted by Adam Anderson and Mack Williams.
- No. 6. is a part of "Everitt" lot, located on Queen Street, and running round No. 3. to Bridge Street. - Containing about half an acre of land, at present tilled by David Waters, colored. We estimate the annual rent of this property at fifteen dollars. $ 15.00
- No. 7. is a lot on Bridge Street, nearly opposite No. 5. improved by a frame two story dwelling, containing two rooms below and two rooms above stairs, with a small kitchen; in fair repair; occupied by John Epton and Henry Gorker, colored, as two dwellings. There is a pump of good water near the front door. We estimate the annual value of this property at eighty dollars. $ 80.00
- No. 8. is a lot on Bridge Street adjoining No. 7. improved by a large stable and carriage house with large loft; also a feed house attached, occupied by Mr. U. J. Le. Garrett. The annual value of this property, we estimate at thirty six dollars. $ 36.00
- No. 9. is a lot on Gannon Street adjoining the lot of William Drumm, colored, improved by a small story and a half house, with room below and above stairs: - in ordinary repair. Occupied by Isaac Smith, colored. We estimate the annual value of this property at thirty six dollars. $ 36.00
- No. 10. is a grass lot on the upper end of High Street, known as the "Pughman" lot, containing four acres of land, more or less, - a good pasture lot, - the fencing, except that on High Street, in good order. The front fence needs repairing. The annual value of this lot, we estimate at sixty dollars. $ 60.00
-
- $ 777.00

Making the aggregate rental value of the said real Estate of seven hundred and seventy seven dollars: -

To be apportioned among the heirs at law, as follows:

(- over -)