

we estimate at two hundred and seventy four dollars.

There is on the home farm a brick dwelling house 52 feet front three stories high with a porch in front, the whole length of the building and seven feet wide, A frame kitchen 30 feet long by 12 feet wide, a part one story and a part of it two stories high; A log meat house 12 by 9 feet, a wagon house twenty by 12 feet and shed on both sides of the same dimensions, A shed stable 26 by 12 feet, A carriage house 15 by 16 feet, A granary 26 by 28 feet, with a corn crib on both sides 28 by 8 feet, Two frame poultry houses 11 by 8 feet, all the buildings on this farm are in good repair and most of them are nearly new, There is a garden 150 by 80 feet enclosed by a good paling fence, in which there are 24 dwarf pear trees and a few peach, all thrifty and in good condition, there is also on this farm an ice house 16 feet square in good repair, This farm contains one hundred and thirty six acres; one hundred and ten of which are arable the balance is in a growth of small wood and bushes, About one fourth of the cleared land is cultivated annually in rotation in corn, and the same proportion is sowed in wheat and oats; The oat and wheat land is usually sowed in clover. The fences on this farm are all in good repair.

On the Harri's farm there is a frame dwelling house, two stories high, 32 by 30 feet, a frame kitchen 30 by 20 feet a brick meat house 16 feet square, all in tolerable repair; two old frame corn houses 28 by 9 feet, an old log stable 18 by 12 feet; A frame shed stable 36 by 24 feet, A frame granary 36 by 24 feet; an old frame carriage house 16 by 8 feet all in only tolerable repair.

There is a garden 130 by 150 feet well enclosed by a good pale fence and an orchard of 36 old and fifty young apple trees and one hundred thrifty peach trees, This farm contains five hundred and twenty acres, about four hundred and thirty of which are arable, the balance is in brush and swamp land, with a small growth of wood upon it, About one third of this farm is cultivated annually in rotation in corn followed by oats and clover and about one fourth of the arable land is sowed in fallow wheat.

The miners are entitled to an interest in about one fourth of this farm; Mrs Cary their mother, owning in her own right seven twelfths of it and a right of dower in the balance.

Their interest in the town property which consists of a two story brick dwelling house 24 by 28 feet, with a porch in front, the whole length of the building, a frame back building or kitchen 34 by 12 feet in tolerable repair, a log meat house 14 by 10 feet an old frame dairy 9 by 8 feet, an old log corn house 22 by 14 feet and an old frame stable and carriage house 22 by 22 feet, all in bad repair; A garden is attached to this building 120 by 110 feet, enclosed