

The said William on the xxix day of December Anno Domini MDCCXL at the County of St. Anne's made his certain note in writing called a promissory note, with the proper mark of the said William signed to the said Henry then and there did deliver by which note the said William promised to pay to the said Henry or his order eleven shillings and six pence Curr: money of Maryland on demand or when required in breaking of glass at one penny of pound or in any other work at one shilling of day by means whereof and by force of the statute in that case lately made and provided the said William became chargeable to pay to the said Henry the said sum according to the tenor of that note, and whereas the said William afterwards to wit on the six day of January Anno Domini MDCCXL at the County of St. Anne's his certain other note in writing called a promissory note and the said last named note with the proper mark of the said William signed to the said Henry then and there did deliver by which note last named the said William did promise to pay to the said Henry three pounds nine shillings Curr: money of Maryland for value received to be paid nevertheless if the said William should faithfully serve the said Henry in every lawfull employment for the space of two months after the date of that note by means whereof the said William became chargeable to pay to the said Henry the said sum in the said last named note contained on his failing or refusal to serve the time in the said note mentioned according to the tenor of the said note and so being thereof chargeable on consideration thereof afterwards to wit the day and year afo: at the County of St. Anne's promised to pay the money in the said last note mentioned on his failing or refusal to serve the time in the said note mentioned and whereas the said William afterwards to wit on the six day of January Anno Domini MDCCXL at the County of St. Anne's made his one other note in writing called a promissory note and the said last named note with the proper mark of the said William subscribed to the said Henry then and there did deliver by which last note the said William promised to pay to the said Henry or his order thirty two shillings and six pence Curr: money of Maryland at or before the fifteenth day of March then next ensuing the date of that note or on failure thereof to serve the said Henry in all lawfull employments by the space of two months by means whereof and by force of the statute in that case lately made and provided the said William became chargeable to pay to the said Henry the sum in the said note named or serve the said Henry the time in the note mentioned on his failing of payment of the money last mentioned and so being thereof chargeable in consideration thereof afterwards to wit the said six day of January in the year afo: at the County of St. Anne's promised to pay the money i.e. the said last note mentioned or failing to do the same according to the tenor thereof to serve the said Henry.