

August Court... 1740... 18

the value of thirty pounds current money of the province of <sup>the</sup> & thereof he brings Suit & Pledg. <sup>vs</sup> J. Doe & R. Roe

And the aforesaid James Quatermus by Francis Allen his attorney comes and defends the force and Injury when & pray Leave thereof to In park here until next Court to be held at Dividing Creek in <sup>the</sup> for the County aforesaid the third Tuesday of November then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the aforesaid Jean John and Ann Polk here also <sup>the</sup>

All which day here came againe as well the aforesaid Jean John and Ann Polk by their attorney aforesaid as the aforesaid James Quatermus by his attorney aforesaid Whereupon it appears to the Court here that the parties aforesaid by the assent of their attorneys had referred their dispute in this action now depending between them to the Arbitrament of Robert King and Nehemiah King of the County aforesaid Gentlemen so that they return their ~~arbitrament~~ <sup>arbitrament in writing</sup> under their hands and seals to the next Court to be held at Dividing Creek in and for the County aforesaid the third Tuesday of March then next following and further it doth appear to the Court here that the parties aforesaid had submitted and agreed that the Justice of the same Court should give Judgment upon the same Arbitrament against either of <sup>the</sup> parties aforesaid as if the same Cause had been determined by this Court, and it is further agreed between the parties aforesaid that that submission should be made a rule of this Court. Therefore it is Ordered by the Court here that the submission aforesaid in manner and form aforesaid made according to the form and Effect of the Statute in that Part lately made and provided be Entered and made a rule of this Court at the request of the parties aforesaid - and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid here <sup>the</sup>

All which day here came againe as well the aforesaid Jean John and Ann Polk as the aforesaid James Quatermus by their attorneys aforesaid, and the aforesaid Arbitrator at the same day did not return any Arbitrament from under their hands and seals, in writing agreeable to the above submission between the parties aforesaid, Thereupon by the Consent of the parties aforesaid further day is given by the Court here unto the aforesaid Arbitrator, to return their Arbitrament between the parties aforesaid in the premises above, until next Court to be held at Dividing Creek in and for the County aforesaid the third Tuesday of June the next following and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid here <sup>the</sup>

All which day here came againe as well the aforesaid Jean John and Ann Polk as the aforesaid James Quatermus by their Attorneys aforesaid and the aforesaid Arbitrators at the same day did not return any Arbitrament from under their hands and seals in writing agreeable to the above submission between the parties aforesaid. Thereupon by the Consent of the parties aforesaid further day is given by the Court here unto the aforesaid Arbitrators to return their Arbitrament between the parties aforesaid in the premises above until next Court to be held at Dividing Creek in and for the County aforesaid the third Tuesday of August then next following and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid here <sup>the</sup>

All which day here came againe as well the aforesaid Jean John and Ann Polk as the aforesaid James Quatermus by their attorneys aforesaid and whereupon the aforesaid <sup>Arbitrator</sup> Returned to the Court here their Arbitrament in the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid from under their hands in writing in form following in Pursuance of a rule of Somerset County Court according to the form of the Statute in that Part provided for submitting the matters in Disference