

June Court 1742 279

Maryland Memorandum that upon the 5th Day of May 1741 Geo: George Dashiell and M^r: W^m: Jones was Qualified to Execute the within Commission by taking the Oath required by Act of Assembly before the Subscribers one of the Justices of the provincial Court of Maryland

Somerset County Depositions of Witnesses taken on the Land Called Woolford and happy Addition this 22nd Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty one by us the Subscribers by Virtue of a Commission to us directed by Somerset County Court was follow -

Sam^l: Wilson Ch^{ie}: Jst:
Henry Waggaman Ch^{ie}: Jst:
John Woolford De^{ft}:

George Gale aged about thirty five years saith being Sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God on part of the Pl^{ts}: he has heard his mother say that she apprehended that the Gut near M^r: Woolford's house where he now lives was the division between Levin Woolford and his brother and that she has heard that Gut called the Great Pasture Gut and further saith not

George Gale

Capell King aged about forty seven years being Sworn on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God saith that he heard Mad^m: Gale say that she and her Co^z: Sarah Lockerman being together and used to play and they used to call the Gut that Runs by the house the Great pasture Gut and further this Depo^{nt} saith not

Capell King

William Bozman aged about sixty one years being Sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God saith being ask^d: by the Pl^{ts}: what name the Gut had that run up by M^r: Woolford's house and he saith it was always called M^r: Woolford's Great Gut when he was a boy and that he never heard a small Gut that run by his point called by any particular name the said Bozman being ask^d: by De^{ft}: whether he Ever knew a pasture fence come down to the Gut by his point who answered he did know a post and rails fence come to it about forty years past when M^r: Roger Woolford was alive and that he never knew the fence goe to any other Gut but that he thinks the other End of the said fence Joyned to a Cornfield fence that lies to the westward of the Gut that runs by M^r: John Woolford's House and further this Depo^{nt} saith not

William Bozman

Catherine Floyd aged about Sixty three years being Sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God saith one day Brian Gilligan and she was walking through M^r: Woolford's field she said that was a fine pasture and Brian Gilligan told her that that was the great pasture Gut and that his Old master had left it to his son Levin and toward the fall she was coming again

and