

and she saw Levin Woolford standing in his mothers door and he askt her where she was going, she told him she was going to his house and took up a tobacco Pipe and they came over a bridge below the Old house and after they came over the bridge she told him that Brian Gilligan told her that pasture was his. Yes says he it is mine all the way from this great pasture Gull to his house and that he tended for by there for to tend the Young Orchard and further saith not. Catharine O'Flloyd deft. being askt. by the def^t. whether there was any fence came down to the head of the Gull by Luchs point - not as she saw at that time and further this deponant saith not Cath^r. O'Flloyd deft. Thomas Banister. aged about thirty eight years being sworn on the holy Evangelis of - almighty God being asked ^{whether} if ever he heard the Gull running up by John Woolford, how called the great pasture gull and some times the Old house gull who answered that he had ^{often} heard it called soe by several people and being askt whether he knew any thing of a pine mark. who answered yes he heard William Chamberlin say that a pine by the marsh side was mark. by ~~Old~~ Roger Woolford and he the said Chamberlin was with him who says further that it was marked after the death of Levin Woolford who being askt. by M^r. John Woolford whether he knew any thing of a pasture fence coming down to the Gull running by Luchs point who says there was a fence - ever since he remembers run there near the pine ~~at~~ but knew not where it layed and further this deponant saith not Thomas Banister deft. Benjamin Labrue aged about forty years being sworn on the holy Evangelis of almighty God being - askt. whether he knew of a pine being markt between ~~Old~~ Roger Woolford and Levin Woolford who says that he heard William Chamberlin say that he was with ~~Old~~ Woolford when he markt. the pine near the head of the Gull running up by Luchs point and he said that if Levin Woolford was alive how he would aspluttered about it and William Chamberlin - askt. why he did not clear ground in the great pasture and he told him he had non business ther for ~~Old~~ Woolford said it was his the said Benjamin says that he was then over seas to M^r. Martha Woolford being about fourteen years ~~ago~~ but William Chamberlin said it was the two girls Land meaning Martha and Mary Woolford and further saith not - Benjⁿ. La Brouse deft. Charles Revell aged about forty three years being sworn on the holy evangelis of almighty God and askt. whether he knew what the Gull was called that runs up by M^r. John Woolford, and he says that he allways heard the said gull called the great pasture Gull and that he was acquainted with it about thirty years and that he went often up the said Gull with his father as fishing who allways called it by that name and further saith not Charles Revell deft. Thomas Denwood aged about ^{one} thirty years being sworn on the holy Evangelist of almighty God saith that he heard Madam Betty Gale say that she and her Coz^r. Sarah went often down to the Landing to dwerl themselves and that she allways dectd or Reulied the gull by John Woolford's house was the great pasture Gull and pointed towards said Gull. and further saith not Thomas Denwood