

the younger and Levin Woolford and further he has heard Levin Woolford say that the pine ap^o was the division and if his father had left him up to the Ho^ofield it would amade him a fine plantation and further he has heard the Creek running up by John Woolfords called Woolfords Creek forty years past and further this deponant saith not
 def. Joseph Brand aged about Sixty four years being sworn on the holy Evangelis of almighty God says that always for about forty years he has heard a gut running up by Luk's point called Woolfords Gut and that Co^o Roger Woolford told him that a pine standing near a marsh some distance from the Gut aforesaid was the division between him self and Levin Woolford and that Levin Woolford said that if the neck was his he would not take a great deal for it but he deast not meddle with it and that he heard Levin Woolford say that the pine aforesaid was the bounder between him and his mother and that it was amark. Free many years before Levin Woolford's death and further says that the Creek that Leads up to John Woolford was called Woolfords Creek and that Levin Woolford never landed any Corne this side the Creek and that the great pasture fence Run down to the said Gut by Luk's point and further this deponant saith not Joseph I Brand
 mark.

def. Mary Pitts wife of John Pitts of Dorchester County aged about forty nine years being sworn on the Holy Evangelis of Almighty God says that her Grand father Roger Woolford the Elder and her Grand Mother and her Uncle Levin and all used to reckon the Gut running up by Luk's point the Great pasture gut and that the great pasture fence Lead down to the head of said Gut and that she has heard the Creek that Leads up to John Woolfords called Woolfords Creek and that her Grand mother has often told her to go fetch the Lees and Posters^{out} of the Creek and that she has heard her uncle Levin say that he had noe pretentions on that side of the Gut nor that he had noe Land between the Great pasture Gut and the Creek and further this deponant saith not Mary Pitts

Def. Ann Mitchell aged about Sixty five years being sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God says that she has heard Levin Woolford say that he Owned Luk's point but for any of the Land she knew not and that she has heard the Gut Leading up by Luk's point called the Great pasture Gut by severall people but doth not know any in peticular and that the Creek by John Woolford was called Woolfords Creek forty odd years agoe and further this deponant says not Ann Mitchell
 mark

Def. Thomas Smith Dorchester County aged about forty nine years being sworn on the holy evangelis of almighty God say that he has heard that the Gut running up by Luk's point was called the Great pasture Gut and that the Great pasture fence run down to the marsh near the head of the Gut and that the Creek Leading up to John Woolfords was called Woolfords Creek and says he was told it by Levin Woolford and that Levin Woolford has shewed him the pine near the marsh and told him it was the Devision between him and his Brother Roger and further he heard Levin Woolford say that he wished that his father had left him as far as a Valley in the neck he should be very Well satisfied but as it was it was of little worth meaning his the said Levins Plantation and further this deponant saith not Tho^o Smith
 Def.