Creek in and for the County of the third Tuesday of November then next following and he hath it and the same day is given to the aforesaid John here also &c

All which day here came again as well the aforesaid John Wildman as the aforesaid Francis Porter by their attorneys aforesaid and whereupon the same Francis Porter as before defendeth the force and Injury wherein he and says that he did not assume upon himself in manner and form as the said John above against him hath complained and of this he puts himself on the Country and the plaintiff in like manner. Therefore it is commanded the sheriff that he should cause to come here immediately before his Lordships Justices Twelve &c by whom he and who neither &c to recognize & because as well &c and the Inors of that same Jury by the Sheriff of the County aforesaid to this Imparallel & and forasmuch as it appears to the Court here that the aforesaid John Wildman and the aforesaid Francis Porter had agreed to Submitt and refer their Dispute in this action now here depending between them to the arbitrament and determination of George Douglas and William Arbusle of Somerset County Gentlemen, so that they publish their arbitrament in writing under their hands immediately to this Court, and further it appears to the Court here that the parties aforesaid had submitted and agreed that the Justices here should give judgment upon the same Arbitrament against either of the parties as as if the same cause were determined by this Court, and it is further agreed between the parties aforesaid that that Submission in manner and form aforesaid made be made a rule of this Court &c.

Wherefore it is Ordered that the Submission aforesaid in manner and form as made according to the force form and effect of the Statute in that part lately made and provided, be entered and made a rule of this Court, upon the motion of the aforesaid John Wildman and Francis Porter.

And afterwards the same Arbitrators at the same Court with this Solemly required came not nor made any Arbitrament agreeable to the Submission aforesaid between the parties aforesaid. Whereupon day is given to the Arbitrators aforesaid by the Court here untill next Court to be held at Dividing Creek the third Tuesday of March then next following for the returning of their Arbitrament in the premises and between the parties aforesaid and the same day is given to the parties aforesaid here &c

All which day here came again the parties aforesaid and the aforesaid Arbitrators returned here their Arbitrament in the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid in form following. Pursuant to the Submission made to us by John Wildman plaintiff and Francis Porter defendant according to the Statute we adjudge and decree that that the said Francis Porter pay or is indebted to the same John the sum of only five Shillings Court money of Maryland with the cost of suit given under our hands this 2nd day of March 1740 Geo: Douglas. Will: Arbusle.

Which being Read and heard and fully understood It is considered by the Justices here that the
