Evidences for the Defendant - Nathaniel Crapper S^r being sworn by the Commissioners on the Holy Evangelist of Almighty God aged about 56 years to the best of his remembrance that he came over Batsy Creek where the Judges were settling the bounds of the Land between Francis Hamblin and John Batsy and that the Judges came of the marsh where he understood that they had settled a bounder and was running a line through the woods what course he did not know but marked trees as they went. further saith not.

April the 26th 1740/1
Capt: Charles Rackliff aged about forty four years or thereabouts being sworn on the holy Evangelist of Almighty God declares this deponent that he was about to purchase Francis Hamblin's Land and that the said Hamblin carried him round the Land called Winchester and that he saw severall trees marked for bounders and line trees and coming down the line between the said Batsy and Hamblin that Hamblin told the deponent that this is the line the Land Justice Run between Batsy and him and then pointing a crop down towards the creek that the Judges settled the bounder down there by a small creek but he was sure he was wronged by the Judges in there settling the bounder there for it was not there and that his pretensions were better then he thought for by reason that his bounder was lower down towards the mouth the said creek if he had his right to & had but as his papers directed, but the said deponent told Hamblin he would buy no Land in dispute further this deponent saith not.

The above depositions was taken for the deft: vizt: Nathaniel Crapper and Charles Rackliff by the Commissioners appointed for the Examⁱⁿ Evidence on Winchester bounders given under our hands and seals this 26th day of April 1740. Samuel Hopkins
