

November Court Grand Jurors, 1727

Mary Good by her Petition to the Court for an Allowance, is Rejected

Richard Exelen Prsents to the Court here the following Petition Viz<sup>d</sup>
To the Worshipful the Justices of Charles County the Petition of Richard Exelen Humbly sheweth that the Road leading from Benedict Town to Newport as it now stands is very Pernicious to your Petitioner and your Petitioner Humbly conceives that where it goes thro' his Plantation it may be turned to the Advantage of your Petitioner and now your Petitioner is content to the Publick your Petitioner therefore Humbly prays your Worships that the Road afo<sup>r</sup> may be turn'd accordingly and that your Worships will appoint Viewers for that Intent and your Petitioner shall obey

On Reading of which Petition, it was ordered that Mr. John Winter Mr. Peter Wood and Mr. James Newison do View the Premises and make a Report thereof

James Hambleton by his Petition to the Court here sets forth that he has apportioned at his house and prays an allowance, Read & granted

King and Queen Doves Petition, for an apportionment of four pounds of Tobacco
Read and granted

Bothams Doves Petition for an apportionment of five pounds of Tobacco pr. poll.
Read and granted

Durham Parish Petition for an apportionment of three pounds of Tobacco pr. poll.
Read and granted

Wm. Macpherson Jun<sup>r</sup> Petition for an allowance of one day's wages last year. Read & granted

Thomas Thomas Petition for an allowance for keeping John Brinnin a poor man, Read & granted

William Crage Petition, for an allowance, Read and Rejected

Thomas Coakley Petition, about an orphan boy named Henry Toller, Read and Rejected

John Bloom Petition, for a further allowance for his Child, Read and Rejected

Edw and Beck Petition for a further allowance for his Wife, Read and Rejected

James Colchaw Petition for an allowance for his support, for which he is allowed Eight Hundred pounds of Tobacco