

WEEKLY REVIEW.

We doubt if weeks in general are as utterly devoid of startling events as the past one. Like Wilkins Micawber we have been waiting for "something to turn up," but up to the time of going to press, nothing has seemed disposed to alter its position on our account. We have looked daily for some "awful catastrophe," "horrid murder," "railroad accident," explosion, anything, in fact of an interesting nature, but have failed to see anything calculated to produce a sensation among our readers. So that if this record of events is characterized by any remarkable amount of monotony, "the good natured public" will please attribute it to the world, and not to lack of editorial enterprise. GRANT'S continued success cannot be considered surprising as we were prepared for all the news we have received. Even the taking of Richmond would not disturb our equanimity in the least, for as GRANT has inserted it in his programme, it would not be policy to disappoint the public, and we look upon the rebel capitol as a doomed city.....We are unofficially informed that the "Knights of the Quill" have had an addition of two pigs to their mess, and contemplate investing their surplus currency for the future in live stock. To a stranger our Hospital must have presented a decidedly rural appearance during the week. The emphatic grunt of the "Knights" "addition," the mowers busily engaged, and the inevitable cow serenely chewing her cud—a rustic combination, rarely met with in military life and calculated to delude innocent civilians into the belief that a soldier's life is not so disagreeable after all. But let him enter the buildings for a moment and witness the reality of rebellion. Here lies a poor fellow, who tells a sad tale of treatment received at the hands of "chivalry" while a prisoner, and his wasted form bears testimony to the truth of his story, and is a stinging rebuke to the boasted honor and magnanimity of the "Sunny South." Farther on lies another, wounded at the "Wilderness," proud of his wound, though suffering, and happy in the thought that he will have at least one scar to prove his devotion to the right. On the steps and clustered around the door are a group of garrulous convalescents discussing the latest news, recounting deeds of valor, each one sure that his particular regiment is the flower of the army, and the noise gradually ceases as one tells of "Moving accidents by flood and field,

Of hair-breadth 'scapes if th' imminent deadly breach
Of being taken by the insolent foe,"

in the midst of which the bugle-call for supper breaks the spell, and off marches an amusing variety of gowns, resembling Chatham street reproduced, seeking for a customer.....We congratulate the inmates of the Hospital on the addition of 500 new volumes to the Library. They were obtained through the endeavors of Chaplain H. C. HENRIES, U. S. A., who looks after the mental as well as the spiritual wants of our patients. We noticed among them a number of familiar titles, among which are "Timothy Titcomb," the "Optic" series, "Waverley," Dickens and a host of others. They also embrace religious, historical, humorous, philosophical, poetical and scientific works. We venture to say that no hospital in the country is blessed with a library like ours.....Chaplain BILLINGSLEY of the 100th Pennsylvania, whose stay among us has been so pleasant, started to join his Regiment on Thursday last. He left many friends behind and carried away the best wishes of all.We learn that the Sunday School held at the Chapel, is now attended by officers and privates. Parents and friends at home fear not for such brave sons, who rely on such hallowed influences to shield them from greater dangers, than accompany the deadliest strife, while in the performance of their duty. The services commence at 7½ o'clock in the evening, and all are invited to attend.....The evening schools are also well attended, and are becoming quite popular. Classes in reading, spelling, mathematics, writing and elocution are in process of organization, and with the efficient corps of lady teachers to superintend the work, we predict in a short time an educational institution unsurpassed by any in Maryland.

ITEMS—MISCELLANEOUS.

Labor is the parent of all the lasting wonders of this world, whether in verse or stone, whether poetry or pyramids.

There is but little difference between a pinch and a punch; it consists of the difference only between u and i.

The world contains one thousand millions of inhabitants, who speak 3,064 different languages, and are of 1,000 different forms of religion.

He who lives with a good wife becomes better thereby, as those who lie down among violets arise with perfume upon their garments.

A little four-year old, the other day, confused his mother by making the following inquiry: "Mother, if a man's a mister, ain't a woman a mystery?"

On a tombstone in a church-yard in Ulster, England, is the following epitaph: "Erected to the memory of John Phillips, accidentally shot as a mark of affection by his brother."

A foppish fellow advised a friend not to marry a poor girl, as he would find matrimony with poverty, "up-hill work." "Good," said the friend, "I would rather go up-hill than down-hill any time."

"I wonder where those clouds are going?" sighed Flora pensively, as she pointed with her finger to the heavy masses that floated in the sky. "I think they are going to thunder," said her brother.

TOBACCO VS BUTTER.—The following was posted in his house, a few days since, by a Poughkeepsie man: "HEAD-QUARTERS, HOUSE OF—"

"GENERAL ORDER NO. 1, JULIA:—Until the price falls, no more butter will be used in our family. JAMES."

He had hardly reached his counting house when a special messenger handed him this;

"JAMES:—Until butter is reinstated, no more tobacco will be used in this house," "JULIA, Chief of Staff."

A REMARKABLE COMPANY.—Company D, of the 47th Pennsylvania Volunteers, raised in Perry county, has in it five brothers, named Brady; four brothers and a cousin, named Powell; three brothers named Baltzer; three brothers named Kroosler; three brothers and brothers-in-law, named Harper; one father and two sons, six pairs of brothers and two step-brothers. They are mainly of the old Holland stock, and lived within a circuit of fifteen miles. They are all re-enlisted men but two or three. The company has been out over two years, most of the time at the extreme Southern posts. During eighteen months they lost but one man by sickness. They kept up strict sanitary regulations, commuted their rations of salt meat for fresh meat and vegetables, and saved by the operation from one hundred to one hundred and thirty dollars a month with which they made a company fund, appointing the Captain treasurer, and out of which whatever knick-knacks were needed could be purchased. Not one of the men has been court-martialed. A record like this is rare in the army. It shows, however, what sobriety, attention to health, and intelligent intercourse will do.—Philadelphia Ledger.

OFFICE,

Opposite Rail Road Depot, on West Street.

"HOME,"

Opposite St. Annie's Episcopal Church, on the left, leading from the R. R. Station to the State House.

U. S. SANITARY COMMISSION is a volunteer, and unpaid bureau of the War Department. It is in perfect subordination to the administration of the Government, and is therefore co-operative with it. It does not supersede, nor supplant the authorities of the Government; but is subservient to them in their attentions to the wants of the soldier, especially when Government means may not be at hand, or when, what may be needed for the soldier, is not provided by the Government. The wants of soldiers therefore will always be supplied if made known to Surgeons, or Agents.
